

Moneymatchmaker.com launches specialist finance Price Comparisons to UK Homeowners

Contributed by Mark Leaper
Monday, 18 June 2007

UK based specialist finance comparisons are now available to homeowners who do not fit the box. Many price comparison companies have emerged in recent times offering to help UK consumers to access online quotes and comparisons for mortgages, loans, life insurance, home insurance and credit cards, but only for the consumer that ticks all of the boxes. Moneymatchmaker.Com have taken the specialist finance sector and made it available via bad credit mortgages, bad credit loans, bad credit credit cards and specialist insurance for people with unusual circumstances.

UK based specialist finance comparisons are now available to homeowners who do not fit the box. Many price comparison companies have emerged in recent times offering to help UK consumers to access online quotes and comparisons for mortgages, loans, life insurance, home insurance and credit cards, but only for the consumer that ticks all of the boxes. Moneymatchmaker.Com have taken the specialist finance sector and made it available via bad credit mortgages, bad credit loans, bad credit credit cards and specialist insurance for people with unusual circumstances.

The finance products on offer provide what is know as self certification of income for mortgage and loan applicants who cannot prove how much they earn. Mark Leaper of Moneymatchmaker.com explained that modern times have meant that a large percentage of the UK population work in ways that mean that they cannot always prove what they earn. This can apply to both employed and self employed people, who sometimes work for cash or have numerous income streams, which prove far to complicated to provide the usual proof of income by means of accounts or p60 and payslips. He went on to say that research has shown that responsible lending based upon affordability is the way forward and a good payment profiles demonstrates the ability to pay, but when complicated with the verification of income process, it had proved to cause unnecessary hurdles and time delays.

In addition to the finance products on offer, moneymatchmaker.com currently provides two additional services for the consumer with the mind to invest.

- Endowment policy valuations and trading, including an endowment shortfall compensation claims facility.
- Online Share trading - Buy and sell your shares online - Market valuations provided with a full managed sale and purchase facility available

Further information of the full services available can be found on the companies website at <http://www.moneymatchmaker.com>